SPORTING SIDELIGHTS

By BILL BAILEY.

And Monday was the first day of spring. Oh, you, Carrie Nation, hurry back!

Yesterday was another fine day for ice-boat racing on the Potomac.

"Hypo" Reid says the price of milk doesn't affect him a bit.

Joe Walcott, the former welter-weight champion, is now playing for the dime museum circuit. This is as it should be.

Everywhere Shad Link, the Baltimore wrestler, goes, some fly sporting editor takes a shot at him. Listen to this from Tomlinson: "Shad Link sounds like a Lenton dish, doesn't it?"

What a grand old "driller" Weston is to be sure! Seventy years old, and plodding across the continent for a bit of a stroll, you know.

Nobody ever heard of Topeka, Kans., until to-day. There's a reason. Tom Hughes' Yannigans arrived there last night.

Dear Bill: The Washington Herald published yesterday morning the complete entry list of the National Guard meet, the only paper in town to turn the trick. Permit me to congratulate you on your enterprise.

Thanks, friend. We're not throwing any bouquets at ourselves, but you'll always find us way ahead of the others in local news.

"The regular prices for baseball in San Francisco," writes one of the correspondents with Comiskey's team, "are 2 bits and 4 bits, but during the extraordinary engagement with the Sox they will be 4 bits, 6 bits, and a meg." Sounds like wooden money, eh?

When Jeffries commences to do road work he can then be called the Colossus of Rhodes.

Our city editor says he is thinking of offering his wife the choice of an Easter bonnet or a trip to California.

The New York Mail is running a number of "Impossible" story beginnings. Here are a few that might make a hit in Washington among the sporting fraternity:

"One day after Press Agent Bright had asked the gang what they'd have."

"The score was 3 to 9 in favor of Detroit and Bill Shipke came up to bat, knocking the ball over the center field fence for—"

"Conceit! Rush Ashton walked into Hickman & White's and bought a $5 sweater."

"After Tony Sousa had gotten a hair cut and was putting on his four-in-hand necktie—"

"The score stood 12 to 0 in favor of George Washington against Georgetown, when—"

"Kid Sullivan had just knocked out Battling Nelson and was—"

"The crowd went wild when Jerry Freeman stole home in the last half."

"Central High's football team had managed to run up a score of 35 to 0 against Tech and were preparing for their Philadelphia rivals—"

This ought to be enough—pass the goulash, please.

WAR HOOPS WIN GAME.

Woodburn Defeated, 7 to 0, in Six Innings.

The War Hoops yesterday opened their 1909 campaign by applying a coat of whitewash to the strong Woodburn team of the Suburban League. The game was called at the end of the sixth inning on account of the cold weather, with the score 7 to 0. The only feature of the game was the pitching of Robinson for the Hoops. The score by innings:

Hoops	7	0	0	0	0	0

War Hoops: 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st, 32nd, 33rd, 34th, 35th, 36th, 37th, 38th, 39th, 40th, 41st, 42nd, 43rd, 44th, 45th, 46th, 47th, 48th, 49th, 50th, 51st, 52nd, 53rd, 54th, 55th, 56th, 57th, 58th, 59th, 60th, 61st, 62nd, 63rd, 64th, 65th, 66th, 67th, 68th, 69th, 70th, 71st, 72nd, 73rd, 74th, 75th, 76th, 77th, 78th, 79th, 80th, 81st, 82nd, 83rd, 84th, 85th, 86th, 87th, 88th, 89th, 90th, 91st, 92nd, 93rd, 94th, 95th, 96th, 97th, 98th, 99th, 100th.

ATTELL TURNS ANOTHER.

Gives Frankie Nell One of the Worst Drubbings of His Career.

New York, March 23.—In a one-sided ten-round bout before the Bedford Athletic Club, Brooklyn, to-night, Abe Attell easily demonstrated his superiority over Frankie Nell, the former bantam champion of California. Attell gave Nell one of the fiercest drubbings of the latter's career. Nell did not land a telling blow throughout the fight.

DECISION FOR PACKEY.

Leach Cross Defeated in Slashing Ten-round Bout.

New York, March 23.—Packey McFarland, the Chicago light-weight, defeated Leach Cross, the East Side boxer, in a slashing ten-round bout at the Fairmont Athletic Club to-night.

McFarland had his man beaten on cleverness at all stages of the fight. Cross tried repeatedly to get over some heavy swings for the jaw, but the Chicago boy either blocked them or skipped out of the way with great foot work.

THE WASHINGTON HERALD BASEBALL CONTEST.

The following is my selection of the line-up and batting order of the Nationals in their first championship game of the season with the New Yorks:

Name.	Position.
1. J. M. McHugh	Pitcher
2. J. M. McHugh	Pitcher
3. J. M. McHugh	Pitcher
4. J. M. McHugh	Pitcher
5. J. M. McHugh	Pitcher
6. J. M. McHugh	Pitcher
7. J. M. McHugh	Pitcher
8. J. M. McHugh	Pitcher
9. J. M. McHugh	Pitcher
10. J. M. McHugh	Pitcher

Western High will meet the Georgetown Preps on Georgetown Field, this afternoon.

The Central High team will cross bats with the Washington School for Boys this afternoon, at Kensington. Both teams have a clean record to date, and an interesting game is promised.

Track prospects at Gallaudet College received a severe setback recently when it was announced that Robert Davis, captain of the team for 1909, had decided to leave the Kendall Green institution. Davis had been appointed as an instructor of physics in the Austin, Tex., College for Deaf and Dumb. R. Preston, of Michigan, has been elected to fill the vacancy.

ARRIVES IN TOPEKA

Hughes' Yannigans Hit Kansas Ahead of Time.

Monte Cross has twenty-eight Kansas City players at work. He has not yet received any word from Lou Rittor, or Pitcher Pat Flaherty.

Thurlock Miller will one day be a major league star in the opinion of all who have seen the New Jersey boy in action with the Pirates at Hot Springs.

Barring accidents it looks like "Lefty" Leifield for the opening game at Cincinnati three weeks from next Wednesday. He is in the latter stage at present than any other Pittsburgh twirler.

Kid Elberfeld has gone about his work this spring in such a peaceful and energetic way that Mr. Stallings must have had accurate information when he declared that he could handle the "Human Firecracker."

Bonesetter Reice, of Youngstown, is reported as having permanently cured Terry Turner's arm. The bonesetter succeeded in locating the trouble after a thorough examination. It proved to be a dislocated ligament.

Paul Collier has finally drifted from the St. Paul Club into the Western association, where he will play with Toledo this year. Geier has been with the St. Paul team for many years, with the exception of one brief year with the Boston Nationals.

Manager McGraw looked into the row between Cossah and Herzog, with the result that Cossah has been temporarily suspended. It is said that the pair came to blows. The row is believed to have started when Herzog kept Cossah on the bench during the early part of the game.

Now that Jake Stahl, the former Yankee, has come into his own, Manager Fred Lake, of the Boston Red Sox, will probably farm Danzig to Providence. He is too valuable a man to let get away outright, and a year under the guiding hand of Hugh Duffy is sure to improve him a lot.

The stage isn't agreeing with Mike Donlin's health. He is suffering from hemorrhages of the nose and was forced to call his manager, George A. Stone, to his home for two performances. New York fans don't wish Mike any bad luck, but hope the indoor sport gets him so bad that he will be forced to take some outdoor exercise at the Polo grounds.

A number of the men are sore, literally, but none are so badly up as to be out of commission. Kahoke turned his ankle Saturday at Waco, but it was announced to-night that it would come out all right with a little rest.

Groom and Gray are a little bit sore, and even "Long Tom" has aches when he moves in the early light of dawn, and walks with a slight limp.

Rapp's split finger is not so bad but he will watch just the same. The work-out of the victors will be in the morning, so Cooley's Western Leaguers can use the grounds in the afternoon for conditioning themselves.

To-morrow two parks will be available, and both teams can work out all they please. The squad here includes Hughes, Kahoke, Groom, Gray, Shipke, Meinke, Johnson, Keeley, Kappan, Pickering, Rapp, and Eddinger.

TERMINALS ELECT OFFICERS.

J. T. Bond Chosen President—Schedule Out Next Week.

At an open meeting of the Terminal Y. M. C. A. Department last night at the Union Station the election of officers for the baseball league took place.

J. T. Bond was unanimously elected president, J. M. McHugh vice president, and G. H. Winslow secretary. There will be six teams in the league.

The Southern Railway takes the franchise of the Baltimore and Ohio team and will place a strong contingent in the league. Horace Spence will be acting manager, and both teams can work out all they please.

The Shopten, headed by R. L. Smick and "Doc" Dougherty, have also put forth their team. Frank L. Holland will head the Trainmen for the season, while the Car Department will be managed by C. H. Marvel. The Union Station squad piloted by A. C. McElroy will put forth a promising team.

The schedule of games was put in the hands of the committee of management, and the rules for the league will be adopted at the meeting of that body on Monday, March 29.

COVINGTON BOWLERS WIN.

Defeat Roneverte Pin Splitters in an Interesting Match.

Covington, Va., March 23.—In a bowling match here to-night the local bowlers defeated a team from Roneverte, W. Va., in a five-game match of ten pins by 323 pins.

Roneverte beat the Hinton (W. Va.) team a few days ago by 325 pins in a series of five games. Players and score:

	1	2	3	4	5	Total
Ferrill	129	116	129	125	168	627
